

ANZAC DAY SERVICES

Monday 25 April 2022

April 25, 2022 marks the 107th anniversary of the first major military action fought by Australian and New Zealand forces during the First World War.

All current and ex-service men and women, people representing ex-service personnel, schools, and sporting and community groups are invited to participate in Anzac Day Marches. It is preferred that uniforms are worn. Everyone is welcome to attend the Anzac Day Services across the region and/or register for the RSL's Light up the Dawn 2022 at 6am.
